

March 27, 2020

On Monday, March 30 we will be resuming classes. Our campuses will be open to students, faculty and staff. At this time, the college is closed to visitors.

Our primary goals are 1.) To safeguard the health, safety and welfare of our students, faculty, staff and communities 2.) To enable you to complete the spring semester and progress toward your goals.

Each of your courses has been modified by your faculty to ensure the learning, licensing and accreditation standards are being met. It is necessary that you monitor your email and D2L for class information and important messages.

We will continue to pay students their work study hours thru May 22. Only students who are enrolled and continue to complete their coursework will get paid. Additional details have been sent to your student email accounts.

We are amending our open access to technology and we will continue to provide resource services using distance technologies. Tutoring will continue using distance technologies. All locations will have access to computers for students at designated spaces.

When coming to campus, you will be required to log in through a QR code or web form. Instructions have been sent to your school email accounts and will be posted at the entrances and in your classrooms.

Our facilities team is and will continue to be cleaning and sanitizing our buildings according to CDC recommendations to assist in ensuring your safety.

On Sunday, March 29 at 6:30 p.m., President Gaalswyk and team members will be hosting another zoom meeting to answer any questions you may have <https://minnstate.zoom.us/j/6545141811>.

Thank you for your continued patience. We miss you and look forward to next week.
