

Health Information Technology, AAS
Minnesota West Community & Technical College

Program Learning Outcomes

1. Demonstrate entry-level knowledge and proficiency of Data Structure, Content and Information Governance, including key stakeholders, management of information, data integrity, classification systems, clinical vocabularies, nomenclatures, health record content and documentation, data sets and dictionaries, and data governance and management.
2. Demonstrate entry-level knowledge and proficiency of Information Protection, including privacy and security strategies, and health information life cycle compliance.
3. Demonstrate entry-level knowledge and proficiency of Informatics, Analytics and Data Use, including informatics concepts, technologies, statistics, reporting, research methodologies, managing data, and exchange of health information.
4. Demonstrate entry-level knowledge and proficiency of Revenue Cycle Management, including coding in accordance with official guidelines, clinical documentation improvement, revenue cycle and reimbursement methodologies.
5. Demonstrate entry-level knowledge and proficiency of Health Law and Compliance, including risk management and policy.
6. Demonstrate entry-level knowledge and proficiency of Organizational Management & Leadership, including leadership skills, organizational change, human resource strategies, data-driven performance improvement techniques, financial management, cultural diversity, ethical standards, consumer engagement, and workforce training.
7. Demonstrate curriculum knowledge by passing mock certification exam.