Four goals are emphasized in course at Minnesota West Community & Technical College:

1) ACADEMIC CONTENT: The academic objectives of this course are:
   a. Distinguish a well-grounded theoretical foundation in the concepts of law enforcement.
   b. Establish a specialized body of knowledge that is the foundation of, and intrinsic to, competent professional practice in law enforcement.
c. Provide experiences in performing the most common, most important, and highest risk duties of a peace officer by integrating the core competencies in law enforcement.

d. Demonstrate the ability to properly use and maintain tools, and demonstrate the mechanics of techniques and tactics peace officers need to employ.

2) THINKING SKILLS: This course will help students improve the effectiveness of their thinking skills through:
   a. Formulating through the analysis, synthesis and internalization of law enforcement and criminal justice concepts, theories, and research a foundation for making decisions and forming views about how the roles of peace maker and law enforcer relate to the world a peace officer lives and works in.

3) COMMUNICATIONS SKILLS: This course will help students improve their oral and written communication skills through:
   a. Use and interpret verbal and non-verbal cues to enhance interpersonal communications.
   b. Class discussions on topic areas
   c. Oral presentations
   d. Community presentations
   e. Moot court exercises
   f. Written exercises and assignments
   g. Completing reports
   h. Law enforcement computer applications
   i. Team building exercises
   j. Reality based training exercises

4) HUMAN DIVERSITY: This course will help students recognize, understand, and appreciate human diversity through:
   a. Explaining how intolerance, prejudice, and stereotyping impact human behavior.
   b. Discussing ways to promote positive relationships with community members of varying races, ethnicities, national origins, immigration statuses, genders, ages, economic classes, disabilities and/or sexual orientations.
   c. Discussing how recognizing and valuing diversity, cultural differences and varied perspectives, promotes community unity, facilitates information gathering, and contributes to officer safety.
   d. Discussing the diverse groups that make-up Minnesota’s communities and some of the traits unique to communities.
   e. Discussing the risks and problems associated with intolerance, insensitivities, partiality, marginalizing and unjust application of the law for both law enforcement and community members.
   f. Demonstrate skills which promote consensus building, show respect for the opinions of others, and encourage cooperation, adaptability, and conflict resolution.
TOPICS TO BE COVERED:

1. Describe the impact of human behavior on the interactions between law enforcement and communities they serve.
2. Explain law enforcement response strategies to mental health issues, persons in crisis and critical incident events.
3. Describe the role of law enforcement as it relates, but not limited, to: victimization, stalking, predatory offenders, domestic abuse, sexual assault and hate/biased motivated crimes.
4. Explain the role of law enforcement when addressing issues of gangs, drugs, terrorism and homeland security.

LIST OF EXPECTED COURSE OUTCOMES:

The goal of professional peace officer education is to produce peace officer license eligible candidates who have the knowledge, skills and attributes necessary for performance of an entry level peace officer in Minnesota as identified by the law enforcement profession. In broad terms this means candidates who
