MINNESOTA WEST CTC LAW ENFORCEMENT SKILLS PROGRAM

COURSE # LAWE 2350  COURSE TITLE: Peace Officer Skills  CREDITS 12

The Minnesota West Community and Technical College Peace Officer Skills course provides students that have completed POST Board approved Professional Peace Officers Education (PPOE) Academic Program with the skills requirements of the Professional Peace Officers Education Category Three: Performance Of Peace Officer Duties and Tasks and Category Four: Tools, Techniques and Tactics for licensing as a police officer. This course meets the transfer pathways requirements.

Prerequisite(s): Completion of the POST Boards approved Professional Peace Officers Education (PPOE) Academic Program or the approval of a POST approved PPOE Coordinator.

To be considered for acceptance into the Skills certificate programs individuals are required to complete and submit the following POST mandated items prior to being accepted into the Law Enforcement program. Every individual must complete the following prior to the start of classes:

1. Complete the application for general admission to Minnesota West.
2. Complete and submit the Law Enforcement Skills application.
3. Submit your transcript and PPOE paperwork to Minnesota West.
4. Schedule a physical exam with your physician. Have the physician complete the physical form.

All forms and registration can be completed at the following link:
