Students must be 18 years of age and have a valid driver's license to take the Commercial Learner Permit Written Knowledge Test to get the Commercial Learner Permit. The Commercial Learner Permit is valid for 180 days and allows the student to practice driving with a person that has a commercial driver’s license.

This course prepares the student for the Commercial Driver’s License (CDL) written knowledge permit test. Topics covered include:
- General Knowledge-Safety-Equipment Operation of a Commercial Vehicle
- Air Brakes
- Combination Vehicles
- Doubles & Triple Combination Vehicles
- Tankers
- Pre-Trip Inspection Process and Preparation

A printed Minnesota Commercial Driver’s Manual is provided with this course. There is no driving included in this course. Hands-on behind the wheel driving training is delivered in a separate course after the student has a valid Commercial Learner Permit, a Minnesota Driver’s License and a DOT Drug & Alcohol test.

Minnesota Requirements: A commercial driver license (CDL) is required in Minnesota to operate vehicles that weigh more than 26,000 pounds, vehicles that carry more than 15 people including the driver, and vehicles identified as school buses, or carrying hazardous materials. To obtain a CDL in Minnesota the student must pass the written knowledge test to get a commercial learner permit; learn and practice the driving skills to take the Commercial Driving Road Test for the Class A Commercial Driving License. Additional tests for endorsements such as school buses, or vehicles with air brakes, and vehicles transporting hazardous materials are also available.

For behind-the-wheel instruction, please call James Wee at 507-537-7532 or 507-828-0721
